The General Operating Procedures of the Air Pollution Control Board require the Standing Committee to screen candidates for the vacancy and make a recommendation for appointment to the Hearing Board. The Air Pollution Control Board must vote on the recommended appointment in open session. If the Air Pollution Control Board does not approve the recommended candidates, the Standing Committee must reconvene to make a new recommendation.

It is recommended that your Standing Committee consider the candidates for potential recommendation to the Air Pollution Control Board of one alternate public member for appointment to the Hearing Board.
